Writing Guidelines

- 1st paragraph: Recap or summary of game. 2-4 sentences. Reader should understand what happened in the game by reading the 1st paragraph. The 2nd and 3rd paragraphs are more detailed.
- 2nd paragraph: More detailed description of the first half. 4-8 sentences. If the first half was not exciting but the second was more exciting, spend more time writing about the second half.
- 3rd paragraph: More detailed description of the second half. 4-8 sentences.
- Include at least 4 player names for each article. Try using different names each time
- Write about good defense, good communication, good hustle, nice shots, goals, assists, saves, anything you want.
- Include something unique about the game. For example, the weather, something really funny that happened during the game (for example, someone lost their shoe, a dog ran onto the field).
- Have the personality of the writer come through in the article. Be creative!
